

sell their land whenever and to whomever they choose. The keys to this model are:

A national park based on partnerships and local community involvement.

A park where private organizations, families, and individuals will continue to live, work, and play within the boundary,

A park that shares with visitors the full range of its cultural and natural history.

A park created by the local community for the benefit of this and future generations.

The park also will work with the community as land use and zoning decisions will continue to be administered by local authorities at the county or municipal levels.

There are several landowners who will become key partners to the park by operating independent anchor sites within the 3,000-acre park boundary that serve to collectively benefit the visiting public. For example, the Cedar Creek Battlefield Foundation will continue to host the annual Battle of Cedar Creek Reenactment Weekend and other events and the Belle Grove Plantation will continue to be open to the public as a private museum holding living history, education, and charity events within the new park. In addition, Shenandoah County has plans to develop a light recreation county park with hiking trails and scenic overlooks on nearly 150 acres along the North Fork of the Shenandoah River within the national park boundary.

Local involvement has played a key role in the crafting of the park legislation. The adjacent towns of Middletown and Strasburg enthusiastically endorsed the creation of the new national park. Private landowners within the proposed boundary shared thoughts and ideas on ways to ensure private property rights and quality of life and these important themes have been included within the legislation. The concept is for this to be a local park first and foremost—park that is part of and benefits the local Shenandoah Valley community.

HONORING THE METROPOLITAN CHORUS

HON. JAMES P. MORAN

OF VIRGINIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, June 13, 2002

Mr. MORAN of Virginia. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to recognize the accomplishments of The Metropolitan Chorus (TMC), a community symphonic chorus located in Arlington, Virginia. This season marks the 35th anniversary of the organization's founding.

As the only community symphonic chorus based in Arlington County, TMC remains a visible force in Virginia's 8th Congressional District and plays a leading role in the cultural life of the region. This 90-member chorus offers residents the opportunity to perform a wide range of music, with pieces spanning the Renaissance period through the 21st century.

In the wake of the tragic events of September 11th, the TMC provided assistance to grieving citizens by organizing and conducting the Chorus and the Arlington Symphony Orchestra in Arlington's Day of Remembrance and Appreciation. Featuring many local and state dignitaries, the tribute honored the victims and emergency rescue personnel of the Pentagon attack. This rousing event lifted the spirits of all who were in attendance.

Under 26 years of outstanding direction by Artistic Director Barry Hemphill, the TMC has performed in a colorful array of venues from the Kennedy Center to Constitution Hall and in various locations throughout the world. A number of these shows were performed for free and given at special early times specifically for the elderly. Through actions such as these, TMC has proven its dedication to the development and promotion of the performing arts in Northern Virginia.

I applaud TMC's many contributions and wish them all the best at their season ending performance on June 24, 2002 at Lubber Run Amphitheater in Arlington Virginia capping off a highly successful 35th Anniversary season.

TRIBUTE TO MS. JOANNE CARTER

HON. BARBARA LEE

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, June 13, 2002

Ms. LEE. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to pay tribute to and express my high regard of Ms. Joanne Carter, the Legislative Director of RESULTS.

Since 1992, Joanne Carter has been the Legislative Director of RESULTS, an international grassroots citizen's lobby whose purpose is to create the political will to end hunger and the worst aspects of poverty, and to empower individuals as advocates with their governments, the media and in their communities.

RESULTS has active chapters in over 100 U.S. cities and in the UK, Canada, Japan, Australia and Germany. RESULTS works on a range of international and domestic issues—including expanding basic health programs to combat TB, AIDS and other major infectious killers, access to microcredit loans to allow very poor women to start their own businesses, reform of World Bank, health policy, and expanded access to Head Start preschool programs and quality early child care in the U.S.

Prior to joining RESULTS' staff in 1992, Joanne Carter coordinated RESULTS grassroots activity for New York and the northeast region of the U.S., and was a practicing veterinarian. She holds a DVM (Doctor of Veterinary Medicine) degree from Cornell University and has done graduate research in reproductive physiology. She has served as a VISTA volunteer and as a recruiter for the Peace Corps.

As many know, I have worked diligently on the global AIDS, TB and malaria crisis. As I have worked with my colleagues in the Congress and with health experts, people living with AIDS, TB or malaria, and the activist community, Joanne has been a key figure in helping me get people organized and sounding the clarion call. She understands so well the moral obligation and responsibility of wealthy governments and all of us, as individuals, to do all that we can to make a difference in stopping these horrific diseases.

Tonight it gives me great pleasure to honor Joanne. Please know that I stand with you in this fight and look forward to our continued work on these important priorities.
